Noah's Thank-You Notes

Name: _____ Date: _____

The day before Thanksgiving break, Noah's teacher asked the class a question. "Who are you thankful for?" Noah thought about it all the way home.

That night, he made thank-you notes from orange and brown paper. He made one for his bus driver, Ms. Green, who always says good morning. He made one for the lunch helper, Mr. Lee, who opens his milk carton. He made the last one for his big sister, who helps him read.

On Monday, Ms. Green taped Noah's note above her seat on the bus. "This made my whole day," she said with a smile.

1 WHO? Who opens Noah's milk carton?

Ms. Green Mr. Lee his sister

2 WHAT? What did Noah use to make his notes?

orange and brown paper clay paint

3 Number the events in order from 1 to 3.

- ☐ The teacher asked who the class was thankful for.
- ☐ Ms. Green taped the note above her seat.
- ☐ Noah made thank-you notes.

4 HOW? How did Ms. Green feel about her note? How do you know?

_____

_____

Noah's Thank-You Notes

Answer Key

The day before Thanksgiving break, Noah's teacher asked the class a question. "Who are you thankful for?" Noah thought about it all the way home.

That night, he made thank-you notes from orange and brown paper. He made one for his bus driver, Ms. Green, who always says good morning. He made one for the lunch helper, Mr. Lee, who opens his milk carton. He made the last one for his big sister, who helps him read.

On Monday, Ms. Green taped Noah's note above her seat on the bus. "This made my whole day," she said with a smile.

1 WHO? Who opens Noah's milk carton?

Ms. Green Mr. Lee his sister

2 WHAT? What did Noah use to make his notes?

orange and brown paper clay paint

3 Number the events in order from 1 to 3.

1 The teacher asked who the class was thankful for.

3 Ms. Green taped the note above her seat.

2 Noah made thank-you notes.

4 HOW? How did Ms. Green feel about her note? How do you know?

She was happy. She smiled and said it made her whole day.