Silly Thanksgiving Story Word Game

Name: _____ Date: _____

Don't read the story yet! Ask someone for each kind of word and write it on the line. Then turn the page, put the words in the story and read it out loud.

1. A grown-up's name like Grandma, Uncle Joe _____ 2. A food
   like pickles, spaghetti _____ 3. A silly made-up word like Zoodle, Fizzbop _____ 4. A thing in a house
   like sofa, bathtub _____
5. A color
   like purple, green _____ 6. A number like seven, 100 _____ 7. A funny sound like boing, splat _____
8. A kitchen thing like spoon, frying pan _____ 9. An action word ending in -ing like dancing, hopping _____ 10. Something very big like mountain, school bus _____ 11. Another food like broccoli, jelly beans _____ 12. Things (more than one) like socks, marshmallows _____ 13. A describing word like crunchy, sparkly _____ 14. Something you love like my bike, our dog _____

Psst... I am hiding in this story!

Silly Thanksgiving Story Word Game: The Story

Copy each word onto the blank with its number (or just say it), then read the story out loud. Get ready to laugh!

The Great Turkey Escape

On Thanksgiving morning, _____(1)_____ woke up and smelled _____(2)_____ cooking in the kitchen. But our turkey, Mr. _____(3)_____, was not in the oven. He was hiding under the _____(4)_____! He was wearing a _____(5)_____ hat and _____(6)_____ socks. "Gobble _____(7)_____!" he shouted, and he ran into the yard. Grandma chased him with a _____(8)_____. The dog chased him too, _____(9)_____ all the way. At last the turkey climbed to the top of a _____(10)_____ and called down, "I will only come down if you eat _____(11)_____ instead of me!" So this year we ate _____(11)_____ with _____(12)_____ on top. It tasted _____(13)_____! Mr. _____(3)_____ sat at the table with us, and when it was his turn he said he was thankful for _____(14)_____.

Play again!

Swap the word list with someone else, or ask new words from a different grown-up. Big kids can write their own silly story on the back with numbered blanks and test it on the family.

